

Party Poker Review

Contributed by Administrator
Sunday, 09 November 2008

During busy hours, the Party Poker characteristically has more than 10000 players playing in live. There are real money poker games all the time which makes them one of most sought sites by money makers. When you include on the number of poker players entertaining in fun and in free games the traffic number can be hilariously 70,000! If you are looking to participate in a tourney, then Party Poker is undeniably the room for you.

The major multi table tournaments that are of the best standards in the industry is organized for players of all levels regardless of beginner, intermediate and advanced player standards by Party Poker.

The Party Poker Million competition, which is a part of the famed World Poker Tour is one of the major events, where poker players from many parts of the globe from different nations compete with each other for a place in the million dollar tourney that is organized in the fantastic one week cruise.

There are no eligibility restrictions apart from the legal gambling age. Anyone is eligible to win in the spot tourney by making a buy in or by winning a satellite tourney. Make hay while the sun shines!